

FAY ANTHONY

STORY: Fay Anthony moved to Whitehorse in 1978, moving in with Norma and Ted Reeder and getting a job with CP Air. She later worked in Whitehorse for the RCMP, Radar Apartments, T&M Lounge, the Ben-Elle (now the Gold Rush Inn), and the Yukon Workers' Compensation Health and Safety Board. Fay was always a hard worker and was very well-liked everywhere she worked.

Fay and her husband Peter Dymacek ran the Bistro on Main Street for several years.
